- Freemasonry affirms itself as the Ancient Mystery Religions, deny full plenary verbal inspiration.

Gnostic Hermeticism

Freemasonry Exposed

- Freemasonry affirms an enlightened elite who can see past the "literary framework."
- Freemasonry affirms Hermeticism, with its pan-en-theistic view of God.
- Freemasonry promote cronyism en route to creation of the Hermetic state as god on earth.

Freemasonry Denies Exclusivity of Christ

- One must believe in a god or higher power, but they do not care which god.
- Initiates use the sacred book of their choice in Masonic rituals.
- Freemasonry views its members as a spiritual brotherhood.
- Lodge leaders are called "Worshipful Masters."

Freemasonry Denies Exclusivity of Christ

- The rest of the analysis of Freemasonry in this podcast is based on The Morals and Dogma of Freemasonry by Albert Pike.
- This was given to 14 degree Masons. Initiates and lower degree Freemasons might not fully understand how deep this demonic snake hole goes, but everyone knows that the exclusivity of Christ is denied from the beginning.

Freemasonry As Ancient Mystery Religion

Though Masonry is identical with the ancient Mysteries, it is so only in this qualified sense: that it presents but an imperfect image of their brilliancy, the ruins only of their grandeur, and a system that has experienced progressive alterations, the fruits of social events, political circumstances, and the ambitious imbecility of its improvers...

Freemasonry As Ancient Mystery Religion

...After leaving Egypt, the Mysteries were modified by the habits of the different nations among whom they were introduced, and especially by the religious systems of the countries into which they were transplanted. To maintain the established government, laws, and religion, was the obligation of the Initiate everywhere; and everywhere they were the heritage of the priests, who were nowhere willing to make the common people co-proprietors with themselves of philosophical truth(pgs 23-24(48)).

Freemasonry Denies Full Plenary Inspiration

IN the Ancient Orient, all religion was more or less a mystery and there was no divorce from it of philosophy. The popular theology, taking the multitude of allegories and symbols for realities, degenerated into a worship of the celestial luminaries, of imaginary Deities with human feelings, passions, appetites, and lusts, of idols, stones, animals, reptiles. The Onion was sacred to the Egyptians, because its different layers were a symbol of the concentric heavenly spheres...

Freemasonry Denies Full Plenary Inspiration

...Of course the popular religion could not satisfy the deeper longings and thoughts, the loftier aspirations of the Spirit, or the logic of reason. The first, therefore, was taught to the initiated in the Mysteries. There, also, it was taught by symbols. The vagueness of symbolism, capable of many interpretations, reached what the palpable and conventional creed could not...

Freemasonry Denies Full Plenary Inspiration

...Its indefiniteness acknowledged the abstruseness of the subject: it treated that mysterious subject mystically: it endeavored to illustrate what it could not explain; to excite an appropriate feeling, if it could not develop an adequate idea; and to make the image a mere subordinate conveyance for the conception, which itself never became obvious or familiar. (Ch 2 The Fellow Craft, pg 22(47))

The Bible Teaches Full Plenary Inspiration

2 Ti 3:15–17 and that from childhood you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. (16) All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, (17) that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.

The Bible is the Words of God, not Esoteric

Num 24:4 The utterance of him who hears the words of God, Who sees the vision of the Almighty, Who falls down, with eyes wide open:

Num 24:16 The utterance of him who hears the words of God, And has the knowledge of the Most High, Who sees the vision of the Almighty, Who falls down, with eyes wide open:

The Bible is the Words of God, not Esoteric

Psa 107:10–12 Those who sat in darkness and in the shadow of death, Bound in affliction and irons— (11) Because they rebelled against the words of God, And despised the counsel of the Most High, (12) Therefore He brought down their heart with labor; They fell down, and there was none to help.

Joh 3:34–35 For He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God does not give the Spirit by measure. (35) The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into His hand.

Freemasonry Affirms an Enlightened Elite

Masonry, like all the Religions, all the Mysteries, Hermeticism and Alchemy, conceals its secrets from all except the Adepts and Sages, or the Elect, and uses false explanations and misinterpretations of its symbols to mislead those who deserve only to be misled; [p. 105] to conceal the Truth, which it calls Light, from them, and to draw them away from it. Truth is not for those who are unworthy or unable to receive it, or would pervert it....

Freemasonry Affirms an Enlightened Elite

...So God Himself incapacitates many men, by color-blindness, to distinguish colors, and leads the masses away from the highest Truth, giving them the power to attain only so much of it as it is profitable to them to know. Every age has had a religion suited to its capacity...

Freemasonry Affirms an Enlightened Elite

...The Teachers, even of Christianity, are, in general, the most ignorant of the true meaning of that which they teach. There is no book of which so little is known as the Bible. To most who read it, it is as incomprehensible as the Sohar. So Masonry jealously conceals its secrets, and intentionally leads conceited interpreters astray. (Pgs 104-105(152))

Freemasonry Affirms Hermeticism

In the ancient Hermetic books, as quoted by Iamblichus, occurred the following passage in regard to the Supreme Being: "Before all the things that actually exist, and before all beginnings, there is one God, prior even to the first God and King, remaining unmoved in the singleness of his own Unity: for neither is anything conceived by intellect inwoven with him, nor anything else; but he is established as the exemplar of the God who is good, who is his own father, self-begotten, and has only one..."

Freemasonry Affirms Hermeticism

...[p. 615 paragraph continues] Parent. For he is something greater and prior to, and the fountain of all things, and the foundation of things conceived by the intellect, which are the first species. And from this ONE, the self-originated God caused himself to shine forth; for which reason he is his own father, and self-originated. For he is both a beginning and God of Gods, a Monad from the One, prior to substance and the beginning of substance;...

Freemasonry Affirms Hermeticism

...for from him is substantiality and substance, whence also he is called the beginning of things conceived by the intellect. These then are the most ancient beginnings of all things, which Hermes places before the ethereal and empyrean and celestial Gods."
Pg 614-615(929)

Freemasonry Affirms Cronyism

1. It is not the RAW power of the people that effectively maintains a free government, but constrained, organized power. Government by caprice is weak and short lived. Government that can scale in power and endure long must have strong institutions, traditions, and a rule of law.

Freemasonry Affirms Cronyism

The FORCE of the people cannot, by its unrestrained and fitful action, maintain and continue in action and existence a free Government once created. That Force must be limited, restrained, conveyed by distribution into different channels, and by roundabout courses, to outlets, whence it is to issue as the law, action, and decision of the State... ..There must be the jus e norma, the law and Rule, or Gauge, of constitution and law, within which the public force must act. pg4-5 (17-19)).

Freemasonry Affirms Cronyism

2. The key to effectively wielding power is force constrained by law. The concepts of liberty, equality and fraternity are mentioned. The first two would be universally applied. Fraternity here, however, would refer to the Masonic brotherhood. to have cronyism one must have cronies. The coupling of a brotherhood of limited application to these universal values introduced a contradiction...

Freemasonry Affirms Cronyism

2. ...While the brotherhood of humanity would be affirmed as a basis of liberty and equality, the introduction of a specifically Masonic brotherhood that would be specifically on the path to secret knowledge of the divine would make some brothers more free and more equal than others. It is this condition of being more free and more equal that sets the stage for cronyism – and a crony network in which the cronies would have obligations to each other and the crony network.

Freemasonry Affirms Cronyism

The FORCE of the people, or the popular will, in action and [p. 5] exerted, symbolized by the GAVEL, regulated and guided by and acting within the limits of LAW and ORDER, symbolized by the TWENTY-FOUR-INCH RULE, has for its fruit LIBERTY, EQUALITY, and FRATERNITY, --liberty regulated by law; equality of rights in the eye of the law; brotherhood with its duties and obligations as well as its benefits(pg4-5 (17-19)).

Freemasonry Affirms Cronyism

3. The relation of the people to the state is pictured as the relation of the "Rough ASHLAR and the Perfect ASHLAR." These would be jewels on display in the lodge. This language is eerily similar to ibn al Arabi in his Bezels of Wisdom.

Freemasonry Affirms Cronyism

Potentially every man is a microcosm, but in practice men differ in their polishing of the cosmic mirror with only a select few realizing their primordial nature. These are the prophets and saints, all of whom belong to the category of 'the perfect man' (al-insan al-kamil). They alone assume the character traits of God, which are latent in all human beings, and manifest them in perfect equilibrium. "Muhammad is the 'perfect man' par excellence. (Ibn al-Arabi – Bezels of Wisdom)

Freemasonry and the Hermetic State

You will hear shortly of the Rough ASHLAR and the Perfect ASHLAR, as part of the jewels of the Lodge. The rough Ashlar is said to be "a stone, as taken from the quarry, in its rude and natural state." The perfect Ashlar is said to be "a stone made ready by the hands of the workmen, to be adjusted by the working-tools of the Fellow-Craft..." ...The rough Ashlar is the PEOPLE, as a mass, rude and unorganized. The perfect Ashlar, or cubical stone, symbol of perfection, is the STATE, (pg4-5 (17-19))

Against the Clever Tale of Freemasonry

2 Pe 1:16-21 For we did not follow cunningly devised fables when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of His majesty. (17) For He received from God the Father honor and glory when such a voice came to Him from the Excellent Glory: "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." (18) And we heard this voice which came from heaven when we were with Him on the holy mountain...

Against the Clever Tale of Freemasonry

2 Pe 1:16–21 ...(19) And so we have the prophetic word confirmed, which you do well to heed as a light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts; (20) knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of any private interpretation, (21) for prophecy never came by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.

The Self-Existent God vs Hermeticism

Exo 3:13-14 Then Moses said to God, "Indeed, when I come to the children of Israel and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they say to me, 'What is His name?' what shall I say to them?" (14) And God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM." And He said, "Thus you shall say to the children of Israel, 'I AM has sent me to you.' "

The Self-Existent God vs Hermeticism

Joh 1:1–4 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. (2) He was in the beginning with God. (3) All things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made. (4) In Him was life, and the life was the light of men.

Joh 8:58 Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, before Abraham was, I AM."
